

Fayrose Abodeshisha, MBA, MS, PA-C

3 Robinwood Dr, Little Falls, NJ, 07424 | (917) 355-8974 |

fayrose314@gmail.com

A compassionate physician assistant with 12 years experience in Trauma and acute care surgery, General surgery, and other surgical subspecialties. Working in education has been very rewarding, but what drives me continues to be the opportunity to play a key role in direct patient care.

EXPERIENCE

---

Yeshiva University, Katz school of health and science, Physician Assistant Program | New York, NY

Director of Clinical Education – Clinical Assistant Professor

(06/20-Present)

- Teach and direct the following clinical courses: General surgery, Patient evaluation and Physical diagnosis, Psychosocial behavioral medicine, professionalism, Clinical procedures, and bridge to practice
- Develop clinical scenarios and participate in weekly simulation laboratory exercises using SimMan 3 and/or faculty as standardized patients
- Develop assessment tools and rubrics to evaluate students performance in simulation exercises
- Teach students various clinical skills and procedures including Venipuncture, ABG, NGT placements, I&D, Suturing, Scrub/Gown/Glove
- Coordinate the hiring and onboarding of new faculty
- Spearhead all clinical year projects to meet the accreditation standards and program mission
- Collaborate with the Program Director and leadership to assess educational needs, identify gaps, and interventions to enhance PA students competency
- Ensure compliance with regulatory requirements and accreditation standards

NYU School of Medicine, Bellevue Hospital, Surgery Department | New York, NY

(12/08 – 06/20)

Trauma and Acute Care Surgery Lead Physician Assistant (03/13 – 06/20)

- Evaluated and delivered immediate stabilization to trauma patients
- Evaluated and developed management plans for new consults for Breast, general, vascular, bariatrics, and acute care services
- Performed daily rounds and developed treatment plans in conjunction with attending physician
- Effectively communicated daily plans to a multidisciplinary team and maintained close communication and advocacy for patients and families, provided continuity of care to patients
- Oversaw global management of Perioperative and postoperative care of surgical patients
- Delivered care to patients in inpatient and outpatient setting
- Supervised a team of APP in the trauma surgery team for the purpose of optimizing patient care, and creating a culture of collaboration and accountability
- Led the onboarding, training, scheduling and orientation of new APP staff hires
- Performed various diagnostic and therapeutic procedures
- Acted as a Liaison between physicians, nursing staff house staff and PAs
- Participated in the development and implementation of policies and procedures
- Wrote orders for medications, consults, diagnostic tests and interpret tests results
- Collaborated with physicians across departments to develop and maintain standards of care, more consistent trauma guidelines and identify weaknesses in the system to implement corrective measures
- Managed work schedule, delegate daily work assignments, and supervise PA students
- Assisted the trauma program director in various projects to obtain and maintain ACS verification
- Coordinated patient care transition plans with social workers and case managers and improved the efficiency of patient discharge process by pioneering and implementing a template that is currently being adapted by other departments
- Communicated guidelines to staff to ensure awareness; serve as contact for questions regarding trauma practices
- Performed research in response to patient-related issues and propose corrective measures as part of the hospital's quality assurance program to enhance clinic operation and decrease readmission rates

General-Breast Surgery Physician Assistant (08/10 – 03/14)

- Interviewed, performed physical exams, and provided diagnostic and treatment plan to patients
- Attended Breast Surgery Multidisciplinary meeting to discuss treatment plans for breast cancer patients
- Maintained an ongoing registrar of breast cancer patients pathologies and pending treatment plans
- Collaborated with department heads to direct clinical activities and enforce the latest medical policies and regulations
- Oversaw global management of patient care in all pre- and post-operative settings
- Managed the scheduling process in the preoperative setting to ensure smooth flow of system
- Developed educational programs for surgical patients to better understand their diagnoses and postoperative care
- Delivered weekly presentation on upcoming surgeries to team to brief them on patient medical histories
- Provided support to clinical and administration staff to troubleshoot and prevent case delays resulting from missed appointments and unforeseen circumstances

Physician Assistant of Ambulatory Care Services, Multiple Surgical Specialties (12/08 – 08/10)

- Obtained medical histories, performed physical exams, and provided diagnostic and treatment plan to patients in outpatient setting
- Followed up with patients post discharge

LEADERSHIP & VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

---

Long Island University | New York | Surgery Rotation Students Preceptor

01/10 – Present

- Member of the board of Advisors of LIU Physician Assistant program
- Mentor physician assistant students during surgery rotations

Active 20-30 | New York | Social Chair

08/14 – 08/16

- Conducted social and educational activities to increase awareness and donations for children living at shelters

EDUCATION

---

Baruch College, Zicklin School of Business | New York | MBA in Health Care Administration

05/18

- Awardee of the Eugene Feldman award for the best business jury project

Pace University Graduate School | New York | MS in Physician Assistant Studies

12/13

Long Island University, Division of Physician Assistant Studies | New York | BS in Physician Assistant Studies

09/08

- PI Alpha National honor society award, LIU division of Physician Assistant studies 2008
- Upper Classman Recognition Award, LIU 2008

LICENSES & CERTIFICATES

---

NJ Physician Assistant license # 25MP00688700 . CDS# A00521700. DEA# MA7941847 • NYS Physician Assistant License # 012911 • NYS Registration # 6543816 • NCCPA Board Certification • Infection Control Certificate # 1084218 • Advanced Cardiac Life Support • Basic Cardiac Life Support • Advanced Trauma Life Support • Stop the Bleed instructor

SKILLS & COMPETENCIES

---

- EPIC EMR • Ability to perform various diagnostic and therapeutic procedures • Ability to communicate effectively with all levels of an organization • Passionate for Innovation and creativity • Microsoft proficiency

